13 February 2023

Dear Colleague,

We are already aware that more than 33,000 people have died across Turkey and Syria since a devastating earthquake struck on last Monday. The shortage of emergency goods and cold weather may cause harm to more people than the initial disaster.

As the world's second-largest apparel exporter, we are aware of our social responsibilities. We always tried our best to provide support to our country people after any natural calamities or disaster. This time we took initiative to support the help seeking people of Turkey and Syria who are at this moment waiting positive rejoinder from the world.

Dear Colleague, in a letter dated 9 February 2023, we urged you to come forward to save the people of Turkey and Syria. Once again we are requesting your urgent response. Your support would greatly contribute them and could take the form of the following:
